

Breea

*Breea guards the island
Looking out for everyone
And with her friends the Tua
She makes sure life is fun!*

Breea is kind of the mother of Bally Bo, and lives high up in the mountains with her faithful friends the Tua.

Even if they don't always notice, Brea and the Tua see that things always go right in the end for Jem, Jon, Jay and Jo, and make sure the earth, sun, wind and rain help them out when they need them. Of course she doesn't make things too easy for them - they have to learn how to sort things out for themselves, like all kids should!

Breea and the Tua rarely make an actual appearance, but if they do, the Coshis know they're really in a mess!
