

Jem

Jem brings out the sunshine with a wave of just her hand Her sunbeams make the flowers grow and brighten up the land

If ever you're in need of a sunbeam to brighten up your day, be sure and call on Jem. The second youngest of the family, Jem is bright, feisty and always beaming, and always knows how to light up a room! Jem's power allows her to spread a little sunshine with a wave of her hand, and she loves spending time in her sunflower field. Who couldn't but love Jem with her 'Sunsational' positive energy, warmth and appreciation of everything good and colourful in Bally Bo. As the sunshine girl, Jem always impresses with her can do attitude. Her energy and enthusiasm means she lives life to the max, but sometimes she gets a bee in her bonnet when things don't happen quickly enough, leaving the others to poke fun at her.
